Relates to certain further powers to the Deputy

Serial No.

Delegation of powers to Depty Comrs of Districts specified in article 80.1. 150. 478. 585. 582 B. M & R.

In the case of decentralisation order no R 48-109 & R 242-21-3 dated 6th July The Deputy Commissioners of Districts have been given powers to make appointments within their Districts to all posts carrying a pay not exceeding Rs 74 including Taluk Sheristedars.

It was in reference to this power the Revenue Commissioner recommended that they may be permitted to fix the rates of acting allowance Article 73 was accordingly amended -

In this connection it is a point for orders whether further decentralisation cannot be permitted to them in respect of the following powers.

(i) Art 80. Power of granting periodical increments.

(ii) Art 122 (6) Grant of subsistence allowance

(iii) Grant of leave to Superannuated subordinates under Art 150 A M.S.R. Subject to note 2 thereto

(iv) Grant of leave to non Gazd Subordinates

(v) Declaration of the shortest route performance of Road journeys between places Connected by Railways under Art 535 (b) & (c) M.S.R.

(vi) The grant of Daily Allowance for halts exceeding 10 days -

It would save much correspondence between the Comptroller and Revenue Department

(1) Art.80, Mysore Service Regulations.- Power of granting periodical increments:-

Under Article 80, the authority having power to withhold an increment is, in the case of ministerial and menial officers, the head of the office. From this, it necessarily follows that power of sanctioning an increment is also vested in the heads of offices themselves. The question of delegating any power to the Deputy Commissioner under Art.80 does not therefore seem to arise.

(2) Art.122 (b) (2). Grant of subsistence allowance:-

According to this article, Deputy Commissioners themselves can grant subsistence allowance if no extra cost is involved. The question of delegating any power under this article also does not seem to arise.

(3) Art.150 A. Grant of leave to superannuated officers:-

The power now vested in the Revenue Commissioner, viz., the power of sanctioning 2 months' leave to officers under extension of service may be extended to Deputy Commissioners also.

(4) Grant of leave to non-Gazetted subordinates

The authority making the appointment is the proper authority for granting leave also. In cases of temporary periods for less than 3 months, the Deputy Commissioners have already been empowered to sanction the leave in respect of all appointments up to Rs.100/-, vide para 30 of the New Revenue Manual, Vol. I. No further delegation seems necessary.

16(5) (a) Declaration of the shortest route;
(b) Performance of road journeys between places connected by railway:-

Both these powers may be delegated to Deputy Commissioners.

17(6) Grant of daily allowance for halts exceeding 10 days:-

This may also be delegated to Deputy Commissioners.

19 The view of the Revenue Commr that no delegation of power need be made now as the Dy Comrs already have the powers referred to under Art 80, seems to be correct.

20 The RC thinks that DC's ha power to sanction subsistence allce und Art 122 (b) 2 now. But perhaps the suggestion in para 3 of the R Secty power to grant increments is vested in the Head of note is that DC's should be given the power which under clause (c) may be delegated to Heads of departments by Govt. It would seem that this power may be given to Dy Comrs with some restrictions, limits being fixed for each case and a maximum which should not be exceeded for the District in a year.

21 Powers regarding grant of leave to subordinates, denial the period of extension of service, the declaration of the shortest route, road journeys where there is no connection, and grant of permn for casual halts in excess of 10 days may as recommended by the R.C. be delegated.

The R.C's view that no delegation is called for as regards the grant of leave to Gazetted subordinates as DC's have no powers now seems to be correct. Ref. para 7 (8).
